CRM

Manage existing and prospective client & candidate relationships in a centralised and fully searchable database.

COMPANIES

Create multiple addresses and contact records, capture everything you need to know about each company and their staff. Engage and communicate with them via Email, Phone and SMS from within your Rectuoso account.

GROUPS

Easily create and add clients and candidates to groups. Use groups to segment your customers, send more focused sales & marketing follow-ups.

ACTIVITIES

Easily manage and track client calls, emails and appointment activities. View recent outbound and inbound emails, text messages sent, meetings attended and one-to-one emails sent. Manage purchase orders and store all client documentation centrally.

MAIL MERGE

Use Rectuoso's mail merge capabilities to instantly send mass email/e-shots to defined client segments.

RECTUOSO

ATS

Manage the entire applicant management process from a single, easy-to-use interface.

CV PARSING

Drag and drop candidate CV's and automatically create candidate records. By storing parsed CV's on our database, all candidates become instantly searchable.

CANDIDATE SEARCH

With our Quick search, boolean search, full text search and advanced field search, and prioritisation of results based on relevance and recency, you can build a qualified shortlist in no time at all.

SHORTLISTING

Shortlist candidates from job boards straight to your vacancy. Maintain longlist or shortlist of candidates per vacancy. Track candidates throughout the recruitment lifecycle from initial interview, through to placement.

GMAIL AND OUTLOOK INTEGRATION

All emails you send and receive are recorded against candidate, client and contact records in your database account. Full featured calendar allows you to create and manage interviews, appointments and meetings. All events are seamlessly integrated with your Google or Outlook calendars.

REPORTING

Turn activity data into business insight and make better decisions. Standard reports include analysis of overall team or individual recruiter performance, placement ratio, activity against specific job order and more.

MARKETING

Recruitment marketing is everything an organisation does to find, attract, engage and nurture talent before they fill out an application. The goal is to increase attraction of qualified candidates to apply to the company and ultimately become employees for the organisation.

BULK EMAIL

Send unlimited bulk email straight from Rectuoso's database. Every email you send will be recorded against the candidate records, so your whole team will have a clear view of the entire candidate history.

BULK SMS

SMS marketing is the best medium to directly promote your products to your target segments. You can send unlimited bulk SMS from our database, every SMS you send will be recorded against the candidate and client records.

FOLLOW UPS

Set follow-up dates and reminders of when you next need to take action. Never miss an opportunity to keep your data active and up-to-date.

JOB DISTRIBUTION

Get your jobs seen sooner and attract more candidates by using our easy-to-use interface.

SOCIAL POSTING

Post jobs to multiple social networks like LinkedIn, Twitter and Facebook with just a few clicks. Track what networks are performing better and directly get the candidates responses into your database.

MULTI JOB BOARD POSTING

Create and manage the job adverts within Rectuoso and post jobs to multiple job boards within seconds.

WEBSITE POSTING

When you add a job to your Rectuoso database it automatically appears in your website job listing section. Social traffic is diverted into your website and enables candidates apply for jobs from your website.

HOSTING AND SECURITY

ON CLOUD

For small to mid sized business without in-house IT departments, this is the right choice. You'll access your system via the internet and have the reassurance of Rectuoso's robust infrastructure.

Your system is fully hosted and maintained by Rectuoso, allowing your team to log-in and work from any location with internet access.

Extremely cost-effective, simple monthly payments allowing for exact budgeting and cash flow without constant surprises.

With no server hardware or software for you to purchase, set-up costs are zero.

Robust and super-fast hosting for any location around the globe.

99% uptime and out of hours upgrades.

Service Level Agreement to meet your specific business requirements.

OWN PREMISES

It's not unusual for businesses to want to keep their data on-site, especially large scale companies.

If you have an in-house IT department to maintain your server infrastructure then this is the right choice of hosting for you.

Host the system on your own servers.

You control who and where should access the system from.

You manage the security, maintenance and server upgrades.

You control your system's server infrastructure.

You will take care of database backups.

Rectuoso takes care of system updates and support.
